Explanatory Note

The Form 8-K filed on January 14, 2005 contained an incorrect Exhibit 99.1 and this Form 8-K/A is filed to provide the correct Exhibit 99.1. No other changes were made.

Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

In December 2004, Mitek Systems, Inc. (the "Company") discovered a potential error which could result in an adjustment relating to the beneficial conversion feature of the secured convertible note issued to Laurus Master Fund Ltd. ("Laurus") during the third fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2004, and the resulting interest expense from the amortization of the debt financing costs. In January 2005, the Company concluded that the adjustment relating to the beneficial conversion feature of the secured convertible note should be made and the interest expense from the amortization of the debt financing costs should have been recorded. The Company determined that warrants issued in connection with the Laurus transaction, previously recorded as equity, should have been recorded as a liability, until such time as the registration of the shares subject to the warrant becomes effective. The Company has restated its financial statements for the third fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2004 and has filed an amended Form 10-Q with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

As adjusted for the restatement, current liabilities for the fiscal third quarter of 2004 were approximately $3.0 million, rather than $2.3 million as originally reported. Long-term liabilities were approximately $1.7 million, rather than $2.4 million as originally reported. Total liabilities for the fiscal third quarter of 2004 were approximately $4.6 million as adjusted and as originally reported. Interest expense for the fiscal third quarter of 2004 was $17,556, rather than $12,570 as originally reported. Net loss for the fiscal third quarter of 2004 was $1.4 million as adjusted and as originally reported.

While the Company believes it has corrected the accounting procedures involved, the financial statements contained in the originally filed 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2004 should no longer be relied upon.

The Audit Committee and the authorized officers of the Company have discussed with the Company's independent auditors the matters disclosed in this Form 8-K and in the amended Form 10-Q.

Mitek Systems Restates Fiscal Third Quarter 2004 Results

POWAY, Calif. Jan. 14, 2005 - Mitek Systems, Inc. (OTC BB: MITK), a leading developer of image-based forgery detection solutions and advanced recognition technologies, today announced that it has corrected certain errors in its financial statements for the fiscal third quarter ended June 30, 2004. The company has restated its fiscal third quarter financial statements and filed an amended Form 10-Q with the Securities and Exchange Commission. For the fiscal third quarter ended June 30, 2004, the net loss was approximately $5,000 greater than originally reported and the total liabilities and stockholders deficit for such period was approximately $14,000 greater than originally reported.

The errors resulted in an adjustment relating to the beneficial conversion feature of the secured convertible note issued to Laurus Master Fund Ltd. ("Laurus") during the third fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2004, and the resulting interest expense from the amortization of the debt financing costs. The company determined that warrants issued in connection with the Laurus transaction, previously recorded as equity, should have been recorded as a liability, until such time as the registration of the shares subject to the warrant becomes effective. The errors were uncovered in internal reviews by the company, and the accounting procedures involved have since been corrected.

As adjusted for the restatement, current liabilities for the fiscal third quarter of 2004 were approximately $3.0 million, rather than $2.3 million as originally reported. Long-term liabilities were approximately $1.7 million, rather than $2.4 million as originally reported. Total liabilities for the fiscal third quarter of 2004 were approximately $4.6 million as adjusted and as originally reported. Interest expense for the fiscal third quarter of 2004 was $17,556, rather than $12,570 as originally reported. Net loss for the fiscal third quarter of 2004 was $1.4 million as adjusted and as originally reported.

"We regret that these errors occurred, but we have strengthened our accounting procedures to avoid such errors in the future," said James DeBello, President and CEO of Mitek.
